ARBITRAGE TRADING

HOW IT WORKS

Crypto arbitrage trading is a sophisticated strategy used by experienced traders and investors to profit from price differences of cryptocurrencies across multiple exchanges. This approach is based on the fundamental principle that digital assets can have different prices on various platforms at the same time.

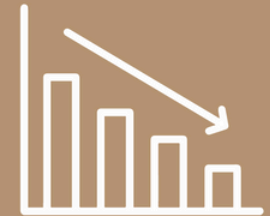

ARBITRAGE ISSUES

Execution time is the key

Trade can go in negative during the execution if price flips

Need to identify price difference opportunity across hundreds of exchanges

Margin is low so need huge trading volume

Conventional arbitrage bots cannot stop loss making trades
